The Bergtechnikum, not to be confused with the Bergakademie, is an independent school under the jurisdiction of Wismuth AG. ENCLOSURE TO

25X1A

Till October 1950, the Technikum was attended to capacity, i.e. by 2,000 students. The school reputedly excelled in the quality of its teachers, students and its installations, etc.

Beginning November 1950 until this date, the student body has dwindled to between 110-120 students.

Presumably the school will be closed for good either on the 1st or 15th of April. Names of the instructors formerly teaching at the Technikum, when requested by the Ministry for Industry with a view to hiring them, were not divulged by the Wismuth AG.
